MOTION NO. 2688

A MOTION referring certain ordinances pertaining to potential amendments to the King County Charter to the Charter Review Committee for review and action.

WHEREAS, the Operations, Police and Judiciary Committee has discussed numerous ordinances proposing specific amendments to the Home Rule Charter of King County, and

WHEREAS, per Section 800 of the Home Rule Charter, the County Executive has proposed to convene on or about November 15, 1976, a Charter Review Committee, and

WHEREAS, it is the consensus of the Operations, Police and Judiciary Committee that proposed amendments to the Charter should be reviewed by the Charter Review Committee in that group's function of reviewing the intent and total impact of proposed changes to the present charter document,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

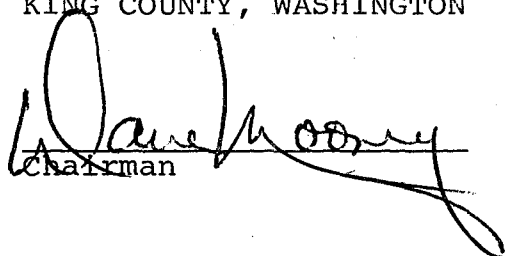

Proposed ordinance:

1. 76-652--Amending Article 6, lowering minimum age for county elective office to eighteen.
2. 76-654--Repealing Articles 2 through 9, adopting new Articles 2 through 8.
3. 76-716--Amending Articles 2 and 3, limiting elective county office to two consecutive terms.
4. 76-768--Amending Article 6, establishing nonpartisan Council elective positions.

represent potential amendments to the King County Home Rule Charter; and, therefore, these ordinances are hereby referred to the upcoming Charter Review Committee for that committee's review and recommendation, per Section 800 of the Charter.

PASSED this 7th day of September, 1976.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Chairman

ATTEST:

Deputy Clerk of the Council
