A MOTION authorizing the King County Executive to enter into an agreement with the City of Redmond for the purpose of preserving farmland within the Sammamish Valley.

WHEREAS, King County and the City of Redmond recognize the unique value of farmland within the Sammamish Valley; and

WHEREAS, King County and the City of Redmond recognize that farmland in the Sammamish Valley may be subject to development pressures;

WHEREAS, King County and the City of Redmond have adopted numerous plans and policies providing for the preservation of farmland in the Sammamish Valley; and

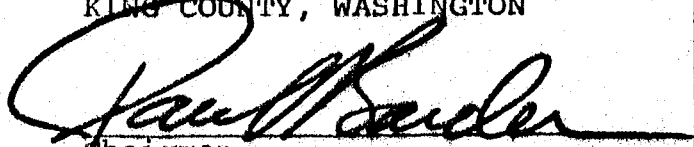

WHEREAS, King County and the City of Redmond recognize that a joint and cooperative agreement provides the best opportunity for the effective implementation of those adopted plans and policies.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The King County Executive is hereby authorized to enter into and carry out the provisions of an agreement, in substantially the same form as is attached, by and between King County and the City of Redmond for the purpose of preserving farmland within the Sammamish Valley.

PASSED this 28th day of September, 1981.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Chairman

ATTEST:

DEPUTY Clerk of the Council
