PROPOSED NO. 84-9

MOTION NO. 5891

A MOTION expressing appreciation to Bruce Laing for his leadership and contributions as King County Council Chairman during the year 1983.

WHEREAS, Bruce Laing has provided firm and fair leadership as Chairman of the King County Council during the year 1983, and

WHEREAS, the Council and Council staff have appreciated his friendly, quiet, cooperative and considerate manner, and

WHEREAS, his experience gained as King County's chief Zoning and Hearing examiner for nine and one-half years prior to his election to the Council in 1979 has been extremely valuable in land use decisions, and

WHEREAS, the results of his effective administration have been recognized and felt by all associated with King County government, and

WHEREAS, his fair and impartial conduct has enhanced confidence in local government;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The King County Council recognizes and is appreciative of the many endeavors of Bruce Laing to improve the quality of life in King County as Chairman of the Council during the year 1983.

PASSED this 3rd day of January, 1984.
