

INTRODUCED BY AUDREY GRUGER

PROPOSED NO. 87-221

MOTION NO. 6781

A MOTION relating to the King County park system authorizing the Executive and the prosecuting attorney to complete the necessary title and legal research for the purposes of commencing one overall condemnation action on the Missing Link Project.

WHEREAS, the completion of the Missing Link is consistent with King County policies as contained in the Urban Trails Plan, the General Bicycle Plan, the Shoreline and Northshore Community Plans, and Motion No. 6089, and

WHEREAS, completion of the Missing Link in the most timely manner possible is desirable to replace the unsafe conditions of an existing route, and

WHEREAS, one overall condemnation action will be the most timely course of action to resolve disputed property interests and to complete this project, and

WHEREAS, the Washington State Supreme Court in Lawson, et. al., versus the State of Washington, et. al., concluded the County must determine whether there are any other valid property interests in this right-of-way;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The executive and the prosecuting attorney are authorized to complete the necessary title and research and other preparation necessary to commence one overall condemnation action on the Missing Link Project.

PASSED this 30th day of March, 1987.
