A MOTION authorizing the King County executive to jointly sign a quit claim deed with Pierce County transferring a portion of the Puyallup River bed to the Puyallup Indian Tribe.

WHEREAS, this property is located on the lower Puyallup River which the Inter-County Improvement District owns, and extends from approximately the east city limits of Tacoma four and one-half miles upstream and is entirely within Pierce County, and

WHEREAS, this property was originally purchased by and is currently owned by the Inter-County River Improvement District, which has historically been funded jointly by King and Pierce Counties, and

WHEREAS, transfer of title is the result of a land claims agreement between the Puyallup Indian Tribe and local governments in Pierce County, the State of Washington, the United States of America, and certain private property owners, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to K.C.C. 4.56.080, this property is deemed surplus to King County's interests and needs, and

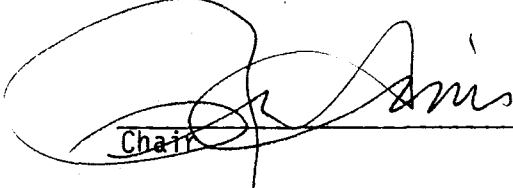

WHEREAS, authorization by the King County council is needed to transfer this property, thereby conveying clear title of the parcel to the Puyallup Indian Tribe;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The county executive is hereby authorized to sign the quit claim deed in substantially the form attached, and jointly with Pierce County, transfer title to a portion of the Puyallup River bed as described in the quit claim deed, to the Puyallup Indian Tribe.

PASSED this 18th day of December, 19 89.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON
