INTRODUCED BY: _____

PROPOSED NO.: 89 - 824

MOTION NO. 7791

A MOTION adopting the King County Executive's plan for developing additional interim correctional housing capacity.

WHEREAS, the King County Correctional Facility prisoner population continues to experience a high rate of growth, and

WHEREAS, the year end 1990 prisoner population is expected to exceed the level that can safely and securely be housed within existing facilities, and

WHEREAS, non-capital population management alternatives, alone, will not adequately address the crowding problem in a timely manner, and

WHEREAS, King County has examined eight capital project alternatives for developing additional capacity, and

WHEREAS, portable housing option "A" (barracks-style modular housing) is a cost effective, flexible option that can be completed in a timely manner;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

Pursuant to the Jail Oversight Committee's recommendation, King County hereby adopts the Executive's plan to pursue portable housing option "A" (barracks-style modular housing) as an interim capital solution to the correction facility crowding problem.

FURTHER, that King County continue to aggressively pursue and develop additional non-capital population management programs and initiatives.

PASSED this 2nd day of January, 1990.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON
