MOTION NO.

1
2 A MOTION directing Council staff, in 3 coordination with Executive staff, to 4 prepare a notice to be sent to all
5 ratepayers affected by the increase of 6 rates proposed by the Surface Water
7 Management Strategic Plan.

8 WHEREAS, on January 30, 1991, the King County Executive
9 transmitted the Executive Proposed Surface Water Management
10 Strategic Plan, and

11 WHEREAS, the Executive proposed Plan recommends
12 continuation of the Surface Water Management program for an 13 additional six years, and

14 WHEREAS, the Executive proposed Plan recommends
15 continuation of the current program, acceleration of basin
16 planning, initiation of capital projects, integration of water
17 quality treatment into current and expanded activities,
18 expansion of the service area, and bond financing of over $81
19 million in capital projects with debt service paid by the 20 surface water management service charge, and

21 WHEREAS, the service charge to finance the expanded 22 program is proposed to be tripled over the next six years, and

23 WHEREAS, a notice sent to all those affected by the 24 proposed rate increase is an appropriate manner to notify and 25 inform the public of the proposal and provide them with the 26 opportunity to participate;

27 NOW, THEREFORE BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

28 The Council staff, in coordination with Executive staff,
29 is directed to schedule a series of community meetings in which 30 to inform the public of the proposal and to receive public 31 comment.

32 The Council staff, in coordination with Executive staff,
33 is also directed to prepare a notice to be sent to all surface
34 water management ratepayers of the Executive proposed Surface
35 Water Management Strategic Plan recommendations. The notice

1 will provide a summary of the proposal and the times and
2 locations of community meetings and the Council public hearing 3 on this issue.

4 PASSED this 13th day of May, 1991.
