OBJECTIVE: To become an active member of the King County Arts Commission.

CAPABILITIES: I am an artist with a firm commitment and deep appreciation for the Arts.

I was an art major in College then changed my career when I joined Western Airlines 25 years ago. I remained active and interested in participating and supporting the arts over the years. I was often the office artist dabbling at my craft whenever a need arose. With my travel privileges I have been able to visit some of the Greatest Museums in the world and have been fortunate to see some of the finest pieces of Art in existence like the largest collection of Leonardo De Vinci's work The Winter Palace in St. Petersburg Russia, and Rembrandt's Night Watch in the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam.

Recently my airline career ended when Delta Air lines closed their office due to consolidation. As a result I was able to return to school full-time to obtain a current degree in Commercial Art.

I believe Art is vital to our quality of life and I am committed to promoting the Arts and helping to enhance public awareness and appreciation for the Arts.

EXPERIENCE: City of Sea-Tac Arts Commission

King County Arts Commission Study Group/Robert Morris Earthwork
