MOTION NO. 9603

A MOTION authorizing the executive to execute an amendment to an interlocal agreement between King County and the icity of Newcastle for the provision of law enforcement services.

WHEREAS, King County and the cities that contract with the county for law enforcement services have been working together for nearly a year to develop a new contract model for delivering and pricing law enforcement services, and

WHEREAS, this work is now complete and the result is a new contract model which offers cities options for service delivery and provides cities with greater control over service levels and costs, and

WHEREAS, the police contract cities, including the city of Newcastle, are in the process of reviewing a proposal from the county based on the new model for the purpose of making decisions about whether to continue to contract with the county and, if so, about service levels beginning January 1, 1996, and

21 WHEREAS, the city of Newcastle is also reviewing a 22 proposal for law enforcement services from the city of 23 Renton, and

24 WHEREAS, under the terms of the existing interlocal 25 agreement between King County and Newcastle, the city is 26 required to provide the county with at least six months 27 written notice of its intent to terminate the agreement, and

WHEREAS, June 30 is only four days from the date of the introduction of this motion, and

WHEREAS, King County has not had an opportunity to review Renton's proposal and develop an alternate county proposal for consideration by the city, and 10 WHEREAS, if the city is interested in having more time 11 to review an alternate proposal from the county, the existing 12 interlocal agreement could be amended to shorten the six-13 month written notice requirement, and

WHEREAS, although it is not known if the city desires additional time to review an alternate county proposal, the county council would like to leave this option open by passing this motion providing the executive with the necessary authority to execute an amendment to the existing interlocal agreement to shorten the six-month written notice requirement;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT MOVED by the Council of KingCounty:

The county executive is hereby authorized to execute an amendment, substantially in the form attached, to the interlocal agreement between King County and the city of
