Attachment: 1997 work program amendment - Sound Recovery Center Sleep-Off Facility Operation

10224

COUNTY AUDITOR'S OFFICE 1997 WORK PROGRAM
ADDITIONAL COUNCIL REQUESTED PROJECT

- Sound Recovery Center Sleep-Off Facility Operation

Review the contract with and the protocols utilized by the Sound Recovery Center in its operation of a "sleep-off" facility.

1997 PROPOSED AUDITOR'S OFFICE WORK PROGRAMCARRIED OVER FROM 1996

- DDES Waiver of Permit Fees
Review policies, procedures, and practices related to DDES waiver of permit fees.
- Criminal Justice Funding
Determine whether criminal justice funds designated to hire new police officers were spent for that purpose.
- Animal Control Revenue
Determine whether animal control revenues are being appropriately collected and that related internal controls are adequate.
- Jail Overtime
Review spending on overtime to determine whether overtime expenditures are increasing or decreasing. Also determine the department's status in reviewing the use of part-time corrections officers.
- DDES Grading Function
Review and evaluate the DDES response to complaints of grading code violations, effectiveness of referral to Code Enforcement for administrative processing of sanctions, e.g., notice and order (to comply/correct), assessment of civil penalties, and success in achieving compliance.
- County Agency Coordination on Capital Improvement Projects
Evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of coordination between County agencies on capital improvement projects.
- Interlocal Agreements
Compare the terms of interlocal agreements actually executed with those adopted by the Council to see if they are substantially in the same form.
- Review of Capital Projects Financed by King County Bonds
Review the status of capital projects financed by King County Bonds (e.g., Woodland Park Zoo, Harborview Medical Center, Regional Justice Center, Open Space, etc.) to determine if project activities are consistent with voter mandates as well as project budgets and schedules.

- King County Employee Benefits
Review the King County employee benefits program to determine whether the Office of Human Resource Management has fully implemented the benefits program; County employees are knowledgeable about the range of available benefits; the extent to which County employees utilize the available benefits, and the competitiveness of the benefits program in attracting and retaining high caliber County employees.

- Fire Marshal Fees
Review the basis for and assessment of fire marshal fees.

- Domestic Violence Cases
Determine the types of issues, if any, impeding the prosecution of domestic violence cases and develop solutions to the issues identified.

- Automated Telephone Systems Impact on Customer Service
Review automated telephone systems used by County agencies to identify access problems that citizens might encounter.

- Temporary Contract Worker Follow-Up
Follow up the 1995 temporary contract worker audit to determine the current usage of contract workers and whether recommendations have been implemented.

- Metro/King County Consolidation
Review and evaluate the results of the Metro/King County consolidation to determine if consolidation has actually occurred.

COUNCIL REQUESTED 1997

- Office of Civil Rights Enforcement
Review complaints filed with the Office of Civil Rights Enforcement to determine how long the complaint disposition process takes and whether the length of time is reasonable.

- Department of Construction & Facilities Management
The objective of this study is to determine whether the assumptions used to justify combining the Department of Construction and Facilities Management and the Facilities Management Division into an internal service fund have been realized.

- Transit Vehicle Maintenance
Review and evaluate transit vehicle maintenance procedures and practices.

- Surface Water Management
Evaluate the six-year financial plan and its effect on staffing, organization and allocation of costs. Also review future service boundary adjustments due to annexations and incorporations and the growth management act, and programming coordination with other jurisdictions.
- Information and Telecommunications Services
Evaluate the efficiency and economy of planned technology investments and the operating impact of their implementation.

STAFF SUGGESTED 1997

- County Fair Follow-Up
Conduct a review of the implementation of audit recommendations from the 1995 audit, including food vendor contracts, carnival contract, procedures over concessionaires/exhibitors and completion of various other written procedures. Also, conduct a general review of the result of the 1996 Fair.
- Public Safety Communications Center and E-911 Program
Review the Department of Public Safety Communications Center and E-911 Program to determine whether operations are effective and efficient and whether the utilization of E-911 revenues is consistent with voter mandates.
- Sunset Review of Capital Project Funds
Review CIP funds to determine the need to continue funds where the original purpose of the funds has been fulfilled.
- Fixed Asset System
Review the implementation of the fixed asset system to ensure that appropriate accounting information is being produced and that the needs of County agencies are met.

CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT AUDITS

- Harborview Medical Center
Evaluate construction management practices related to the Harborview Medical Center project.
- Regional Justice Center
Evaluate construction management practices related to the Regional Justice Center project.
