Motion 11267

Proposed No. 2001-0310.1

Sponsors Nickels, Gossett and Phillips

1           A MOTION pronouncing support for a juror fee donation
2           program in which jurors serving in the superior courts in
3           King County may voluntarily assign all or a portion of their
4           juror fees to support court-based child care centers.

5

6

7

          WHEREAS, King County superior court established a drop-in child care center
8           (the "center") at the regional justice center in September 1998, and it is the first court-
9           based child care center in the Pacific Northwest, and

10

12

          WHEREAS, this child care center provides a secure, age-appropriate environment
11           for children while their parents and guardians participate in court business in a more
12           effective and efficient manner, and

13

          WHEREAS, the center is operated by a nonprofit entity and has been supported 14           by grants and private donations, and

15

          WHEREAS, the judges of the superior courts in King County have established a
16           juror fee donation program whereby jurors called to serve in King County superior court

17 may voluntarily assign all or part of their juror fees earned from such service to support
18 court-based child care;

19 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

20 We pronounce our support for the juror fee donation program in which jurors
21 serving in the superior courts in King County may voluntarily assign all or a portion of 22 their juror fees to support court-based child care centers.
