King County

Position: Ombuds Director	FLSA: Salaried, overtime exempt
Department: Office of Public Complaints/Tax Advisor	Salary Grade: 134
Council Approved:	Revised:

Series Summary

The King County Office of Public Complaints/Tax Advisor (Office of the Ombuds) is an independent agency established by the King County Charter to promote public confidence in county government by responding to complaints from the public in an impartial, timely and efficient manner, and by contributing to the improved operation of King County government based upon the results of complaint reviews and investigations.

The Ombuds Director serves as the Office of the Ombuds' chief administrator, responsible for the oversight and effective management of complaints and inquiries regarding the administrative conduct by King County agencies (KCC 2.52); alleged violations of the King County Employee Code of Ethics (KCC 3.04); employee reports of improper governmental action and retaliation under the Whistleblower Protection Code (KCC 3.42); and alleged violations of the Lobbyist Disclosure Code (KCC 1.07). In addition, the Office of the Ombuds fulfills the function of Property Tax Advisor for King County in accordance with Revised Code of Washington 84.48.140.

The Ombuds Director is a salaried, overtime exempt classification that reports to the Chair of the Council but is responsive to all nine Councilmembers.

Distinguishing Career Features

The Ombuds Director is an executive-level position accountable for all activity in the King County Office of the Ombuds, providing members of the public and King County employees opportunities to raise concerns and lodge complaints about alleged ethics violations, whistleblower activity, administrative acts, and lobbyist disclosure issues. The Ombuds Director may also offer objective investigations, determinations, and recommendations for improved operations of county government. The Ombuds Director is appointed by the Council for a five-year term that is subject to reappointment in accordance with the King County Charter and King County Code.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

Strategic Leadership

- Lead the administration and operation of the Office of the Ombuds pursuant to goals, protocols, and objectives as established by King County Code, County Charter, administrative rules, and professional best practices.
- Maintain the integrity and independence of the Office of the Ombuds, ensuring that complainants receive assistance that is equitable, accessible, and confidential. Set performance standards for timely and appropriate resolution of all matters, including investigations, complaint resolution, and tax advice.

- Where appropriate, direct the development and implementation of action plans or offer recommendations to parties on strategies for complaint remediation or resolution, or the prevention of future complaints. Recommend corrective actions and systemic reforms.
- Direct the analysis of investigative results and preparation of reports of findings and recommendations for agency action and accountability.
- Engage external consultants, subject matter experts, legal counsel, or other assistance when necessary to ensure effectiveness and credibility.

Executive Management

- Assign work and provide guidance and strategic direction to staff on all aspects of complaint investigation and resolution, including intake and review; assessment of jurisdiction and classification; interviewing, factfinding, discovery, and research; data tracking and reporting; prioritization of workload; and implementation of recommendations and action.
- Supervise the work of the Tax Advisor, ensuring that the public receives timely and effective advice about the process for appealing property tax assessments and other matters related to property taxes.
- Develop and establish performance objectives and personal development targets for staff; create and promote an equitable workplace that encourages professional development and outstanding public service.
- Collaborate with staff to implement systems, procedures, and protocols that continuously improve the service the Office of the Ombuds provides to the public.
- Oversee the daily administration and operation of the Office of the Ombuds, including the development and execution of the Office of the Ombuds' budget.

Public Information and Administration

- Represent the Office of Public Complaints/Tax Advisor at public meetings, hearings, and in interactions with other departments and committees.
- Determine the scope and content of communications that will be provided to the Council, Executive, and complainants, taking into consideration the need for confidentiality; issue formal findings and recommendations for improved operations based on administrative acts of county government to the Council and Executive.
- Submit and present biennial reports to the Council regarding the exercise of Director's functions during the preceding six-month period and the status of the whistleblower program; prepare periodic public reports on work activity and performance.
- Prepare, present, and defend ethics findings before the King County Ethics Board and lobbyist disclosure findings before the King County Hearing Examiner; follow appeals to higher judicial processes.
- Make criminal, disciplinary, or interagency referrals (e.g., Washington State Public Disclosure Commission, Washington State Auditor's Office, etc.) as required by the codes authorizing the position.

16224 Attachment A

- Oversee and direct the content for the Office of the Ombuds' public communications, including web pages, brochures, and other communications for public viewing; conduct public outreach to inform and educate the public about the availability of Ombuds services.
- Manage the Office of the Ombuds' responses to public records and discovery requests.

QualificationsRequired Knowledge and Skills

- In-depth knowledge of codes, regulations, administrative, and legal procedures as they apply to the operation and jurisdiction of the Office of Public Complaints/Tax Advisor.
- Knowledge of King County ethics and whistleblower codes, and familiarity with laws relating to property taxation.
- Working knowledge of the principles and practices of public administration and government structures, systems, and operations.
- Knowledge of the principles and practices associated with supervision, leadership style, team building, and performance management.
- Specialized professional knowledge of the principles, methods, and techniques used in the research and investigation of public complaints.
- Advanced human relations skill to gain trust while working with others in extremely difficult, volatile, or at-risk situations; resolve conflict; employ lines of questioning for fact-finding, deliver reports in formal or legal settings; and review performance.
- Familiarity with privacy, public information, and record retention laws, including those involving the handling of information and communications of a confidential and sensitive nature.

Required Abilities

- Ability to plan, organize and manage the activities of an office specializing in the review, investigation and resolution of complaints and allegations of wrongdoing by County officials and employees.
- Ability to develop an effective team and maintain productive and cooperative relationships with those encountered on work-related matters, including elected officials, County employees, representatives of other governmental agencies, and the public.
- Ability to conduct thorough, objective investigations of complaints, reach appropriate neutral, objective, and expert conclusions based on investigation results and maintain confidentiality regarding process and outcomes in accordance with all legal requirements.
- Ability to analyze and define complex and sensitive issues and problems, evaluate alternatives, and develops independent conclusions and recommendations in accordance with policies, codes, and laws, and in consideration of trade-offs and risks.
- Ability to present information, proposals, and recommendations clearly, logically and persuasively in a variety of formats, and effectively handle sensitive and confidential matters.
- Ability to prepare budgets, account for expenditures, and develop and interpret statistical and operating information.

16224 Attachment A

- Ability to propose legislation, amendments, and policies relating to assigned areas of responsibility.
- Ability to conduct investigations.
- Ability to prepare clear, concise, and comprehensive reports and other written materials.

Supplemental Information

This position is appointed by a majority of the King County Council. The King County Council shall consider reappointment of the Ombuds Director at the end of each five-year term. The Ombuds Director may be removed prior to the end of a five-year appointment for cause and upon a majority vote of the King County Council. Among other forms of cause is a determination that the Ombuds Director has become incapacitated or has been guilty of neglect of duty, misconduct, or political activity in accordance with KCC 2.52.050.

Education and Experience

The qualifications for this position are established by King County Code, KCC 2.52.040. The position requires a degree from an accredited college, or its equivalent in service to government; a working knowledge of legal and administrative procedures; and experience and/or knowledge of local government commensurate to the powers of the office. In addition, the incumbent must be a registered voter in the United States.

Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure

ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Carahsoft OBO King County ITD (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) electronic signing system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign signer account, you may access them for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of a DocuSign envelope instead of signing it. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.

How to contact Carahsoft OBO King County ITD:

You may contact us to let us know of your changes as to how we may contact you electronically, to request paper copies of certain information from us, and to withdraw your prior consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically as follows:

To contact us by email send messages to: bob.johnson@kingcounty.gov

To advise Carahsoft OBO King County ITD of your new e-mail address

To let us know of a change in your e-mail address where we should send notices and disclosures electronically to you, you must send an email message to us at bob.johnson@kingcounty.gov and in the body of such request you must state: your previous e-mail address, your new e-mail address. We do not require any other information from you to change your email address..

In addition, you must notify DocuSign, Inc. to arrange for your new email address to be reflected in your DocuSign account by following the process for changing e-mail in the DocuSign system.

To request paper copies from Carahsoft OBO King County ITD

To request delivery from us of paper copies of the notices and disclosures previously provided by us to you electronically, you must send us an e-mail to bob.johnson@kingcounty.gov and in the body of such request you must state your e-mail address, full name, US Postal address, and telephone number. We will bill you for any fees at that time, if any.

To withdraw your consent with Carahsoft OBO King County ITD

To inform us that you no longer want to receive future notices and disclosures in electronic format you may:

- i. decline to sign a document from within your DocuSign session, and on the subsequent page, select the check-box indicating you wish to withdraw your consent, or you may;
- ii. send us an e-mail to bob.johnson@kingcounty.gov and in the body of such request you must state your e-mail, full name, US Postal Address, and telephone number. We do not need any other information from you to withdraw consent.. The consequences of your withdrawing consent for online documents will be that transactions may take a longer time to process..
