Proposed No.: 92-639

ORDINANCE NO. 10537

AN ORDINANCE waiving the competitive bidding requirements of RCW Chapter 36.32 for necessary alterations to the King County Automotive Center in which the public interest would suffer material injury or damage due to delay.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. The King County division of facilities management discovered cracks in the west wall columns in the County Automotive Center. Further investigation by structural engineers retained by the county uncovered structural problems in the supporting walls of the structure and indicated repairs should be undertaken immediately.

SECTION 2. The King County council declares that an emergency exists whereby the public interest would suffer damage or injury by delay if necessary alterations to facilities are not made.

SECTION 3. Pursuant to RCW 36.32.270 the requirements of RCW Chapter 36.32 are hereby waived with regard to the contract or contracts for such alterations to the facility.

PROVIDED THAT:

This waiver shall be effective if appropriated funds are available for the alterations.

1 Facilities shall provide documentation of the work done
2 and the informal bidding process used.
