RE: Harborview Major Institution Master Plan
 DCLU Project No. 9804983
 Public Hearing Scheduled for April 3, 2000

Dear Hearing Examiner:

King County is pleased to submit this recommendation for approval of the proposed Harborview Medical Center Major Institution Master Plan (MIMP). Pursuant to state law, King County maintains the Harborview Medical Center campus as a County hospital for the primary purpose of providing comprehensive health care to the indigent, sick, injured and infirm of King County. The proposed plan was developed over many years and with careful consideration. As the Lead Agency overseeing the environmental review process, King County was thorough in both its review of the impacts this MIMP would create and in its evaluation of the actions necessary to mitigate those impacts. The proposed Master Plan provides the necessary land use and planning framework to enable the facility to continue to meet the complex and expanding medical needs of the Puget Sound region for many years. It also enables Harborview to meet the seismic safety standards that are essential for the operation of the Medical Center during and after a significant seismic event.

The significance of Harborview's role as a provider of health care services to the Puget Sound region cannot be overstated. Harborview is the State of Washington's only Level I Trauma Center and only Level I Pediatric Trauma Center. The hospital is a major referral center for neurological surgery, burn treatment, orthopedic surgery, rehabilitative medicine and psychiatry. Harborview also serves as one of the two main teaching hospitals for University of Washington,
