8 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

9 SECTION 1. Findings:

10 A. Over the past few months, worldwide petroleum prices have reached record
11 levels of volatility resulting in a significant fluctuation in fuel prices.

12 B. The latest projections of sales tax revenue, the primary source of transit
13 funding, indicate a significant reduction in 2008 and future years, even as inflation has 14 driven up the cost of wages and other costs to Metro Transit.

15 E. The County Council intends to work closely with the Executive and the Metro
16 Transit Division to identify and implement solutions to this multi-year funding that 17 preserve existing and planned new bus service. The Council will work with riders,

18 employers, other governments, valued employees, and other stakeholders to achieve
19 financial stability and to preserve transit service.

20 F. Preservation of service is critical in light of record ridership growth as 21 customers respond to increasing fuel prices by moving to public transportation. Transit
22 service is also critical to the achievement of regional growth management, economic 23 development, and environmental goals.

24 G. A fare increase is one necessary and immediate action to help preserve
25 existing and future expansion of the Metro Transit system.

26 SECTION 2. A. Section 4 of this ordinance proposes changes in the fares
27 charged for county public transportation services on the bus system. Section 6 of this
28 ordinance increases the annual limit on the discount provided for Human Services
29 Tickets. Section 8 of this ordinance proposes changes in the fares charged for county
30 public transportation services on the bus system.

31 B. These fees are assessed under K.C.C. 2.99.030.

32 SECTION 3. Section 4 of this ordinance takes effect February 1, 2009.

CLERK
KING COUNTY COUNCIL

November 24, 2008

The Honorable Julia Patterson
Chair, King County Council
Room 1200
COURTHOUSE

Dear Councilmember Patterson:

I have signed Ordinance 16299, enacting a series of fee increases for Transit in 2009 and 2010. While I continue to believe that Transit's financial circumstances warranted a full fifty-cent fare increase in 2009, the staggered twenty-five cent fare increase in both 2009 and 2010 is a small start to putting Transit on stronger financial footing.

I am writing today to alert the council to a couple of small technical issues with Ordinance 16299. The ordinance does not accurately capture the fare increases for two fare categories for 2010 – the weekend/holiday all-day pass and the weekday all-day pass. The fares for these categories should be $4.50 and $6.50, respectively, not $4.00 and $6.00. By the way of this letter I am informing the council of my intent to correct these fares when I submit to the council at the end of January 2009 the response to Transit proviso P3 - the transit fare policies update.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Bob Cowan, Director, Office of Management and Budget, at 206-296-3434.

Sincerely,

Ron Sims
King County Executive
