A MOTION requesting the County Executive to seek funding for a complete management systems study for the Superior Court of King County.

WHEREAS, a modern system of management techniques and organization is deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the Superior Court, and

WHEREAS, the attainment of this goal can be helped by the employment of a professional research firm to study the needs of the Superior Court and make appropriate recommendations, and

WHEREAS, the 1972 budget appropriates funds for a job classification and payroll study for the Superior Court, and

WHEREAS, this study would be but a part of a total management systems study.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

That the County Executive be requested to seek grant funding for a total management systems study of the Superior Court and to use the monies appropriated for a job classification and payroll study to fulfill the County's match in seeking such a grant.

PASSED this 1st day of May, 1972.
