WHEREAS, the congestion and the complexities, the tensions and frustrations of today's life, the need for outdoor recreation - the opportunity to "get away from it all" - has become of crucial importance, and

WHEREAS, there are few pursuits in King County and the State of Washington providing a better chance for healthy exercise, peaceful solitude, and appreciation of the great outdoors than hunting and fishing, and

WHEREAS, King County and the State of Washington outdoor sportsmen have been leaders in nearly all the major conservation programs and have provided funds for fish and wildlife conservation and management and the propagation of vanishing species, and

WHEREAS, the hunters and fishermen of King County and the State of Washington have made outstanding contributions to the conservation, recreation and in the boating and firearm safety programs, and

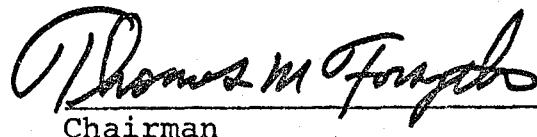

WHEREAS, the fourth Saturday of the Month of September is the national day for recognizing the American hunter and angler;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The King County Council hereby recognizes September 28th, 1974, as King County Hunting and Fishing Day and urges all King County Citizens to join with sportsmen - conservationists in a rededication to the wise use of our natural resources and their proper management for the benefit of future generations.

PASSED this 9th day of September, 19 74.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Chairman

THOMAS M. FORSYTHE

Attest:

Clerk of the Council
