

MOTION NO. 1784

A MOTION in appreciation of Lothar H. Pinkers, M.D., F.A.C.S.

WHEREAS, Lothar H. Pinkers, M.D., F.A.C.S. took the improvement of emergency medical care resources throughout the King County metropolitan community as a personal mission as well as an integral part of his responsibilities as a physician and surgeon, and

WHEREAS, his personal and professional support assisted King County and its many communities to raise the level of both the quality and quantity of the emergency medical services and to create a permanent institution within the government to assure even further improvements in the future, and

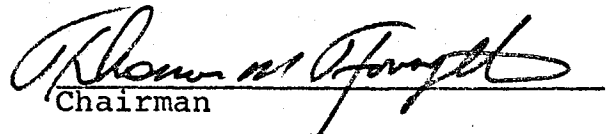

WHEREAS, the King County Emergency Medical Services Coordinating Council which he founded has completed its responsibilities and service to the metropolitan community,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The King County Council expresses its appreciation to Lothar H. Pinkers, M.D., F.A.C.S. for his efforts in inspiring the delivery of emergency medical care in King County.

PASSED this 21st day of October, 1974.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON
