MOTION NO. 2457

A MOTION naming the South Area Athletic Facility the Fort Dent Athletic Center.

WHEREAS, the King County Council on January 12, 1976, by Motion No. 2273, established a committee to recommend a name to the Council for the regional park area now known as the "South Area Athletic Facility" located in the City of Tukwila, and

WHEREAS, the committee, in a March 30 report to the Council, recommended as its first priority the name of "Fort Dent Park", and

WHEREAS, the Superintendent of the Seattle Department of Parks and Recreation recommended that the name include a reference to an athletic center or complex, since the purpose of the facility is to help relieve some of the demands on Seattle's athletic fields and programs, and since over 80% of the site is dedicated to athletic activities,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The King County park currently known as the South Area Athletic Facility be hereafter officially named "Fort Dent Athletic Center".

PASSED this 3rd day of May, 1976.
