A MOTION endorsing the proposal of University of Washington Hospital for state moneys and urging the state to continue its contractual relationship with the hospital.

WHEREAS, state regulations require that an agency be included in the county's annual plan for proposed mental health programs and expenditures in order to establish eligibility for financial assistance, including Title XIX, and

WHEREAS, the County Council, by Motion 2794, adopted the 1977 King County Mental Health Plan as a statement of the county's goals and priorities for the mental health moneys it administers, and

WHEREAS, the University of Washington Hospital has an established contractual relationship with the State of Washington which does not require county participation except in the limited instance of including the agency within the county's plan for mental health expenditures, and

WHEREAS, the programs and services resulting from the contractual relationship evidently, are satisfactory to both parties, and

WHEREAS, the programs and services, though not falling within the goals and priorities established by the 1977 King County Mental Health Plan, will benefit the residents of King County;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:
 King County endorses the proposal of the University of Washington Hospital for state moneys and urges the State of Washington to again contract with the Hospital for continued provision of services to the residents of King County.

PASSED this 18th day of April, 1977.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
 KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Mike Lavery
 Chairman
