PROPOSED BY 81-440

MOTION NO. 5263

A MOTION acknowledging the need to separate Capital Improvement Project No. 800178 into two phases, and committing to contracting the second phase by July 1, 1982.

WHEREAS, the County Council through Ordinance No. 5232 funded the Project known as S.W. 320th Street from 21st Ave. S.W. to 1st Ave. South (C.I.P. #800178) and

WHEREAS, this project is presently funded with Federal Aid Urban System funds and Urban Arterial Board funds including the necessary local match, and

WHEREAS, it is deemed prudent to separate this project into two phases, consisting of;

Phase I: 21st Ave. S.W. to 10th Place S.W.

Phase II: 10th Place S.W. to 1st Ave. South

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

A. That Capital Improvement Project No. 800178 be constructed in two phases with the separation taking place at \pm 10th Place S.W.

B. The first phase will consist of 21st Ave. S.W. to 10th Place S.W. and will utilize the available Urban Arterial Board funds and appropriated County Road funds.

C. The second phase will consist of 10th Place S.W. to 1st Ave. South and will utilize County Road funds or other funds available for road improvement purposes.

D. The King County Council commits to awarding of a contract for Phase II on or before July 1, 1982, providing four through lanes and one turning lane.
