Proposed No. 84-520

MOTION NO. 6093

A MOTION honoring Wendy A. Morgan for her service to King County as the first coordinator of the County Women's Program.

WHEREAS, the King County Women's Program was established following the demise of the Washington State Women's Commission in 1978, and

WHEREAS, elected officials of King County felt that the public interest was best served by an agency designed to meet the needs of the diverse population of the county, and

WHEREAS, Wendy Morgan through her great competence and skill helped King County to realize a viable women's program, and

WHEREAS, the Women's Advisory Board, created by the county council to serve the Women's Program and advise the council, was staffed by Wendy Morgan and made important recommendations ranging from child care to comparable worth;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County: Wendy A. Morgan is honored for her six years of service to King County as the first coordinator of the Women's Program.

PASSED this 27th day of August, 19 84.
