PROPOSED NO.: 87-347

MOTION NO. 6850

1 A MOTION challenging the Seattle City
2 Council to a softball game to settle all
3 conceivable policy and other differences
4 in favor of the winner.

5 WHEREAS, King County and the City of Seattle have frequently 6 played on opposing teams on the public policy field, and

7 WHEREAS, the chances of finding locations for landfills seem 8 way out in left field, and

9 WHEREAS, finding locations for energy resource recovery
10 facilities requires a grand slam home run, and

11 WHEREAS, the Seattle Mariners may be walking, and

12 WHEREAS, providing an AFIS system to which the City has 13 access may require extra innings, and

14 WHEREAS, foul balls have been hit by both sides and both 15 sides have accused the other of pitching illegal curves, and

16 WHEREAS, former jocks now in power suits desperately need 17 exercise prior to filing, and

18 WHEREAS, such exercise may distract them from consumption of 19 fund raising hors d'oeuvres, snacks, spaghetti feeds, chili 20 cookouts and other assorted goodies as well as barrels of 21 spirits and/or carbonated mineral water, and

22 WHEREAS, such activities are enough to send a power dresser
23 to the showers;

24 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED:

25 The King County Council hereby challenges the Seattle City
26 Council to the first ever annual Challenge Cup Softball Game to 27 be held at 3:00 p.m. July 9, 1987 at Lower Woodland Playfield at 28 which time all existing and future differences shall be settled
29 in favor the winner.
