GOALS FOR FUNDING AND ENDORSING PROGRAMS AND PROJECTS

The Centennial Commission would like to encourage a diversity of Centennial projects and programs that will leave lasting legacies of tangible and visible products for our residents, our visitors and future generations. The Commission will look for innovative and exemplary projects that support the centennial goals and enhance the celebration in new and creative ways.

Projects may focus on celebrating the heritage of our past, the present, or the promise of the future and shall be for non-profit purposes.

A balance of projects will be considered relating to a spectrum of interests including such areas as heritage, maritime, the arts, ethnic groups, recreation, education, civic and beautification activities and economic development.

Preference will be given for projects which demonstrate broad community support and provide opportunities for maximum participation in the implementation phase. Upon completion, the project must be accessible to participation by all without discrimination of any kind.

The Commission will put particular emphasis on projects which enable us to appreciate our County in new ways and knit us together as a region.

A portion of the funding available will be reserved for projects of "county-wide" significance. The remaining funds will support local projects reflecting the unique character and interests of King County communities.

All applicants must be individuals, groups, non-profit organizations or local units of government. Applicants must demonstrate fiscal responsibility and an ability to successfully complete the project. Finally, all projects must be completed by the end of the State Centennial Year 1989.

All projects located within an incorporated city or town shall have a 33% match, which may be cash and/or an in-kind contribution.

All County, state and federal laws concerning non-discrimination shall apply.
