PROPOSED NO.: 88-655

MOTION NO. 7295

A MOTION commending the Planning Association of Washington for its twenty-five years of service to planning in Washington State.

WHEREAS, the King County Planning Commission was a founding member of the Planning Association of Washington when it was formed in 1963, and

WHEREAS, the Planning Association of Washington has served the citizens of the State through its sponsorship of the Planning Short Course, conferences, and an annual awards program, and

WHEREAS, these efforts have increased the knowledge of planning and enhanced the effectiveness of King County elected officials, staff and citizens in the planning process, and

WHEREAS, the Planning Association of Washington will celebrate its 25th Anniversary in Yakima, October 20th and 21st, 1988;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

A. The Planning Association of Washington is commended for its 25 years of Service to Planning in the State;

B. The council pledges its ongoing support for the continued success of the organization;

C. The council extends its Congratulations and Best Wishes at the 25th Anniversary Celebration in Yakima.

PASSED this 6th day of September, 1988.
