INTRODUCED BY: Sullivan/Sims

PROPOSED NO.: 89-484

MOTION NO. 7576

A MOTION honoring and congratulating Jamila S. Norris as a recipient of the prestigious Max H. Block Human Relations Award

WHEREAS, this is the 30th year the award, established by the American Jewish Foundation in cooperation with the Block Foundation, has been given, and

WHEREAS, criteria for recipients include exhibiting attributes such as exemplary human relations conduct, appreciation for ethnic, religious and cultural diversity and an outstanding propensity for encouraging others to join in efforts to promote good will and tolerance among all people, and

WHEREAS, Jamila Norris was judged and selected by her peers and teachers for this award for showing great concern for the welfare of others and for being a positive role model of Christian behavior, and

WHEREAS, one of the many service projects in which she actively participated includes collecting money to buy the ingredients, making submarine sandwiches and delivering them to people at the Matt Talbott Shelter, and

WHEREAS, Jamila and two other classmates wrote, produced and acted in a play depicting how Black women face prejudice and performed the play before junior high school students in a district wide International Day, helping younger students to understand subtle ways in which racism exists in today's world, and

WHEREAS, she is a 1989 graduate of Holy Names Academy, has received Second Honors denoting academic excellence, has been elected as Student Council Representative and is regarded by her teachers and peers as being pleasant, warm, giving and outgoing;

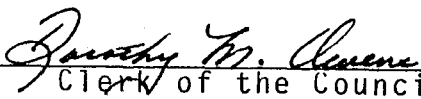

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED: The Council congratulates Jamila S. Norris for having been selected as a recipient of the Max H. Block Human Relations Award, and as an outstanding and treasured citizen of King County.

PASSED this 19th day of June, 1989.
