A MOTION relating to council committees and introduction of proposed legislation, and rescinding Motion 6501.

WHEREAS, the council organizes to conduct business through a structure of committees, and

WHEREAS, each committee has a chair responsible for the conduct of its meetings, and

WHEREAS, one of the primary responsibilities of a committee is to review proposed legislation and make recommendations to the council thereon, and

WHEREAS introduction of proposed legislation by a councilmember for referral to the appropriate committee or action by the council is a step in the legislative process necessary to formal consideration, and

WHEREAS introduction does not represent endorsement of the proposed legislation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

Proposed legislation may be introduced by any councilmember. Ordinarily proposed legislation will be introduced by the appropriate committee chair unless introduced by the district representative. Proposed legislation to be heard by the zoning and subdivision examiner may be introduced by any councilmember. In the event that no councilmember volunteers to introduce the proposed legislation to be heard by the zoning and subdivision examiner, then the chair of the council shall introduce the proposed legislation, and such

1 introduction shall not necessarily represent endorsement by the
2 chair.

3 Motion 6501 is hereby rescinded.

4 PASSED this 5th day of March, 1990.
