Proposed No.: 94-45

MOTION NO. 9214

A MOTION requesting the Executive to report back to the Council with a policy to prevent retiring employees from using public programs and processes to the detriment of the public.

WHEREAS, the Metropolitan King Council congratulates the Executive for his swift attention to the serious erosion of public confidence resulting from retiring employees and pension abuses, and

WHEREAS, the Executive is developing a policy to prevent retiring employees from using public programs and processes to the detriment of the public, and

WHEREAS, the Council appreciates the Executive's forthrightness in acknowledging that such an abuse should not have occurred, and

WHEREAS, upholding the trust and interests of the citizenry of King County is among the most important responsibilities of public officials;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County: The Executive is requested to report back to the Council by February 28, 1993 with a policy and plans for implementation of this policy to prevent retiring employees from using public programs and processes to the detriment of the public.

PASSED this 18th day of January, 1994
