1. Please list any other boards, commissions, advisory committees or community organizations with which you are presently working in an official capacity.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 294 - Treasurer for past 3 years
Audubon Recycle Committee (4 person membership) past 2 yrs.

2. Please indicate why you are interested in serving on the Solid Waste Advisory Committee.

The whole area of Solid Waste is interesting to me because I see we've reached a point in time where our consumer disposal habits are creating problems to our environment. I believe we need to and can change habits. I would like to help represent my area in meeting our challenges. Also, I like that Seattle has a reputation for being innovative in recycling, and would find it rewarding to be part of the process.

3. Please describe your familiarity with or interest in:

a. Local Solid Waste Management Issues

1990 - MRC Training.

The last year I've been working with Polly Huang & Julie Bassett through the Audubon Recycle Group. We've addressed subjects a-d in regards to VASHON.

b. Waste Reduction

This as well as RECYCLING are the areas I am most interested in. Through the recycle group we've gotten paper recycling started at the 2 elementary schools on the island.

c. Recycling I organized and helped set up the ADAPT-A-ROAD program on VASHON.

d. Hazardous Waste Disposal

Most of my knowledge in this area is from MRC training

OTHER COMMENTS:

I don't have technical expertise in these areas, but I do have high interest, am a quick learner and responsible person.
