Experience

Associate Planner - Clegg and Associates, Seattle, Washington (1993-1994).
Assisted government and non-profit agencies in planning and development of public policies and services addressing substance abuse, mental health, and youth development. Responsibilities included research (legal, primary/statistical, and literature), project design and management, and a substantial amount of writing. Required sensitivity to competing political interests, resourcefulness in developing compromises, and skillful handling of contentious public meetings.

Management Systems Analyst - Seattle City Light, Seattle, Washington (1992).
A one-year position helping Seattle City Light develop and implement a five-year strategic plan. Monitored legal developments affecting power utilities. Collaborated with managers and line staff to set performance objectives and develop implementation plans for finance, technology, consumer research, conservation, and human resources. Drafted entire corporate plan.

Associate Attorney - Riddell, Williams, Bullitt & Walkinshaw, Seattle, Washington (1990-1992).
Corporate Finance Department associate; responsible for general business and venture capital clients. Reviewed and drafted wide range of contracts (e.g., merger and acquisition, employment, non-disclosure, licensing, asset and stock buy-sell, investment, real estate, shareholders' buy-sell), researched business-related legal issues, prepared corporate governance documents, guided clients in complying with state and federal government regulations, and counseled clients on legal and business matters.

Associate Attorney - Pettit & Martin, San Francisco, California (1988-1990).
Performed work similar to those at Riddell, Williams (please see above), plus software and hardware licensing, independent contractor agreements (toys and software development), banking regulation, securities sales and distribution (public and private placements), municipal bonds, insurance regulation, general and limited partnerships, and aircraft sales/leasing.
