A MOTION recognizing the King County Children and Family Commission Youth Involvement Program, and supporting the Youth 'N Action priority issues, agenda, key goals, and action plan as set forth in the King County Youth Involvement Project 1995 Progress Report.

WHEREAS, in 1994 the King County executive sponsored a public safety summit at which the top priority for action was identified as diminishing youth violence by involving communities, and

WHEREAS, in 1995 the King County council spearheaded a planning process that culminated in the adoption of the plan, "Safe Communities: Strategies to Reduce Violence in King County," and the King County Youth Involvement Project is an outgrowth of the second strategy, "Involve Everyone," and

WHEREAS, several activities were undertaken by the Youth Involvement Project to organize youth and solicit their input and involvement, and

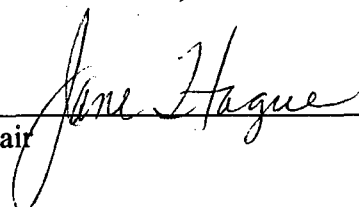

WHEREAS, the Youth 'N Action Core Group developed out these activities, and this group identified priority issues, key goals and an action plan as written in the attached Youth Involvement Project 1995 Progress Report;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The King County children and family commission is requested to support the Youth 'N action priority issues, agenda, key goals, and action plan.

PASSED by a vote of 13 to 0 this 21ST day of October, 1996.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Chair
