Proposed No.: 98-074

MOTION NO. 10402

A MOTION calling for the meeting of the district court districting committee for the purpose of amending the districting plan to adjust the King County district court electoral district boundaries.

WHEREAS, the district court districting plan contains the boundaries of each electoral district of district court, pursuant to state law, and

WHEREAS, state law also provides that a city shall not lie in more than one electoral district, and

WHEREAS, the boundaries of each electoral district of district court consist of county voting precincts, and

WHEREAS, proposed revisions to the county voting precincts shall be submitted to the council for approval no later than May 1st, and

WHEREAS, the records and elections division shall submit to the council concurrently with any proposed revisions to voting precincts, proposed revisions to the King County district court electoral district boundaries which result from the proposed voting precinct revisions, and

WHEREAS, the districting plan, containing the boundaries of each electoral district of district court, must be amended to reflect the electoral district boundary adjustments and provide that no city is located within more than one electoral district of district court, and

WHEREAS, state law provides that the district court districting committee may meet

1 for the purpose of amending the districting plan at any time on call of the county legislative
2 authority;

3 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

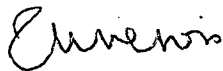

4 The district court districting committee is hereby called to meet for the purpose of 5 amending the districting plan to adjust the King County district court electoral district
6 boundaries which result from proposed voting precinct revisions and which provide that no
7 city is located in more than one electoral district of district court.

8 PASSED by a vote of 13 to 0 this 9th day of February, 1998.
