A MOTION donating six hats, twelve trouser belts, eight gun belts, twelve handcuff pouches, twelve automatic pistol holsters, twelve magazine pouches, twelve radio holsters, one new style badge, one new style patch, one circa 1943 badge and one 1943 coroner/assessor identification card to the Seattle Metropolitan Police Museum.

9

WHEREAS, the King County sheriff's office owns the above items that are no longer in use or of minimal cost, and 10

11

WHEREAS, the items would normally be sold in bulk at an auction to lower administrative costs and separating them out for separate auctions would not be cost efficient for the county, and

12

13

14

WHEREAS, these items are of notable historical value, and 15

WHEREAS, the Seattle Metropolitan Police Museum's mission is to collect, preserve, and exhibit artifacts and archival material significant to the history of law enforcement in Seattle and King County, and

16

17

18

WHEREAS, these items would be a valuable addition to the museum's collection,

WHEREAS, the Seattle Metropolitan Police Museum has expressed an interest in the items as important additions to their collection and would enable all citizens in King County to appreciate King County's law enforcement history;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

Unique circumstances make a donation of six hats, twelve trouser belts, eight gun belts, twelve handcuff pouches, twelve automatic pistol holsters, twelve magazine pouches, twelve radio holsters, one new style badge, one new style patch, one circa 1943 badge and one 1943 coroner/assessor identification card in the best interests of the public. The King County executive is authorized to negotiate a donation of these items from the King County sheriff's office to the Seattle Metropolitan Police Museum.
