WHEREAS, K.C.C. chapter 20.18 limits consideration of substantive changes to the Comprehensive Plan, including changes to the urban growth boundary, to every fourth year beginning in 2000. K.C.C. 20.18.030C allows for the consideration of substantive changes on even calendar years if the county determines by motion that the purposes of the Comprehensive Plan are not being achieved as evidenced by official population growth forecasts, benchmarks, trends and other relevant data, and

WHEREAS, the Snoqualmie Urban Growth Area Subarea Plan 2001, adopted on June 4, 2001, by Ordinance 14117, includes an up to date population capacity estimate for the city of Snoqualmie and its urban growth area, documents that amendment of the city of Snoqualmie's urban growth area is warranted to ensure sufficient capacity exists to

18 accommodate Snoqualmie's household target, and recommends specific changes to the 19 urban growth area to facilitate accommodation of the household target, and

20 WHEREAS, on October 24, 2001, the Growth Management Planning Council 21 unanimously recommended amendment of the city of Snoqualmie's urban growth area as 22 recommended by the Snoqualmie Urban Growth Area Subarea Plan 2001;

23 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

24 A. King County hereby determines that the purposes of the Comprehensive Plan
25 are not being achieved as documented in the adopted Snoqualmie Urban Growth Area 26 Subarea Plan, and authorizes the consideration of changes to the Snoqualmie urban 27 growth area in 2002.

28 B. The scope of the amendment shall be limited to implementation of the adopted

Motion 11376

29 Snoqualmie Subarea Urban Growth Area Subarea Plan, and therefore no additional 30 resources are necessary to prepare recommended changes.
