5                   WHEREAS, in Ordinance 14711 the metropolitan King County council 6                   established the King County citizens' election oversight committee ("CEOC"), and

7                   WHEREAS, the CEOC reviewed the conduct of the 2002 and 2003 elections in 8                   King County, identifying problems and making recommendations, and

9                   WHEREAS, the CEOC expired after it made its report to the council, and

10                  WHEREAS, further problems occurred in the 2004 general election and in the 11                  spring special election in 2005, and

12                  WHEREAS, the council values the previous hard work of the CEOC members 13                  and in Ordinance 15157 established a new CEOC to review the 2004 general election and 14                  the spring 2005 special election;

15                  NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

16                  The following persons are appointed to the King County citizens' election 17                  oversight committee:
