1                   A MOTION confirming the appointment of Ross Marzolf,
2                   as a representative of the registered voters of King County,
3                   to the King County citizens' elections oversight committee.
4

5                   WHEREAS, in Ordinances 14711 and 15157, the metropolitan King County 6                   council established citizens' election oversight committees to review the conduct of 7                   elections in King County, to identify problems and to make recommendations, and

8                   WHEREAS, those committees have consistently provided invaluable service to 9                   county voters and county government, and

10                  WHEREAS, in Ordinance 15453, the King County council established a new 11                  citizens' elections oversight committee and adopted criteria for membership on the 12                  committee;

13                  NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

14                  The appointment of Ross Marzolf to the King County citizens' elections oversight
