

KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON

ORDINANCE NO. 1092

AN ORDINANCE of the County Council, King County, Washington finding the purpose of Ordinance 100401 of the City of Seattle to be a County purpose and to be consistent with the purposes of King County Resolution No. 34571 passed December 18, 1967.

WHEREAS, King County Resolution 34571 adopted December 18, 1967 authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds of the County for Park and Recreation purposes, provided in Section 6 thereof in part as follows:

"If all Projects which such Agency shall have been authorized to accomplish have either been completed, or their completion duly provided for, or their completion found to be impractical, such Bond proceeds or any portion thereof may be applied by such Agency to carry out such other Public Park and Recreation Facility capital purposes within the territorial limits of the Agency as may be determined by the Legislative Authority thereof and found by the Board by resolution to be consistent with the purposes of this resolution and to be a County purpose."

WHEREAS, by its Ordinance 100401, passed November 1, 1971 and approved November 4, 1971, the legislative authority of the City of Seattle (an "Agency" as defined in Resolution 34571 and herein called the "City") has found and determined that all public park and recreation facilities projects which the City has been authorized to implement under said Resolution No. 34571 have either been completed or their completion has been duly provided for and said legislative authority has further found and determined that the balance of the sum of $3,000,000 from the City's Park Acquisition and Development Fund allocated for the acquisition of Fort Lawton Park by Section 3, A, (1) of said Resolution No. 34571 and which will not be expended for such acquisition, will be applied to the development of said Fort Lawton Park;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE County Council of King County, Washington as follows:
