INTRODUCED BY BRUCE LAING

PROPOSED NO. 89-71

ORDINANCE NO. 8890

AN ORDINANCE authorizing the arrest by police officers of persons observed in violation of court-ordered probation.

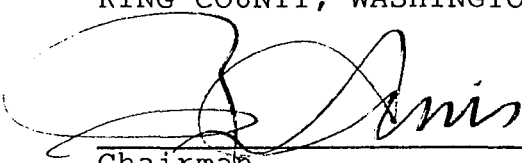

SECTION 1. As used in this ordinance "probationer" means any person who after conviction of violation of an ordinance of the county or a law of the state, has been placed on probation in connection with the suspension or deferral of sentence by either a District Court of this county or the King County Superior Court.

SECTION 2. Whenever a police officer shall have probable cause to believe that a probationer, prior to the termination of the period of his/her probation, is, in such officer's presence, violating or failing to comply with any requirement or restriction imposed by the court as a condition of such probation, such officer may cause the probationer to be brought before the court wherein sentence was deferred or suspended, and for such purpose such police officer may arrest such probationer without warrant or other process.

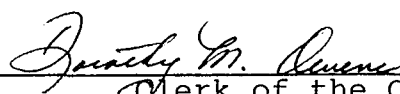

INTRODUCED AND READ for the first time this 17th of January, 1989.

PASSED this 20th day of March, 1989.
