AN ORDINANCE transferring one position from the building and land development division to the personnel division (office of human resource management); providing for the assignment of a position to building and land development to deal with personnel-related matters; amending Ordinance 9720, Sections 24 and 70.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. Effective January 1, 1991, the human resources position established in 1991 in building and land development is hereby transferred to the personnel division (office of human resource management). Building and land development will compensate the personnel division (human resource management) for benefit and salary costs of the position utilizing the loan in/loan out labor and the interfund transfer processes.

SECTION 2. Ordinance 9720, Section 24, is amended by adding thereto and inserting therein the following:

The maximum number of additional FTEs for Personnel shall be: 1

Provided that:

One position will be assigned to building and land development to review current operations for the purpose of determining existing personnel-related needs and to develop strategies for meeting those needs, to develop methods of anticipating and planning for future human resource needs and to serve as a liaison between the personnel manager (director of human resource management) and the manager of building and land development.

1            SECTION 3. Ordinance 9720, Section 70, is hereby amended
2 by adding thereto and inserting therein the following:

3            The maximum number of additional FTEs in the building and
4 land development shall be: [1]
