

ORDINANCE NO. 10734

AN ORDINANCE waiving the competitive bidding and minority and women's business enterprises (M/WB) participation requirements of King County Code Chapters 4.16 and 4.18 as to the individual project contracts for the renovations to the King County Courthouse twelfth floor, provided that compliance with M/WB requirements shall be met or exceeded by the collective group of construction contracts and by the collective group of consultant contracts, in which the public interest would suffer damage or injury due to delay, and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. The King County division of facilities management has performed an analysis of the project workload for the council remodeling project at the courthouse twelfth floor which indicated that part of the work be accomplished by outside consultants and contractors. The requirements pursuant to King County Code Chapter 4.16.050 are hereby waived.

SECTION 2. The King County council declares that an emergency exists whereby the public interest would suffer damage or injury by delay if immediate hiring of the necessary consultants and contractors is not done. The requirements pursuant to King County Code Chapter 4.16.050 are hereby waived.

SECTION 3. The requirements pursuant to King County Code Chapters 4.16 and 4.18 are hereby waived provided that any M/WB requirements that would otherwise apply to such contracts or services shall be waived as to individual contracts; provided further that compliance with the county's annual M/WB goals shall be met or exceeded through the total expenditure of dollars under this emergency ordinance.
