5 STATEMENTS OF FACT:

6 1. Louise Miller has been a resident of King County, Washington, since 7 1966. For over thirty-five years, she has lived in the unincorporated area
8 of northeast King County near Cottage Lake park.

9 2. In the years between 1966 and 1982, she shared her passion and talent 10 for music as a music teacher and found her political wings through her 11 election as commissioner to the Woodinville water district.

12 3. In 1982, she won election to the Washington state legislature 13 representing the 45th district. She served six terms from 1983 to 1994 and 14 was instrumental in the passage of legislation supporting cultural and 15 recreation programs in King County.

16 4. In 1993, she was elected to the metropolitan King County council, 17 representing district 3, and brought her passion for the arts and recreation 18 to her new role as a regional leader. In eight years on the council, she has 19 created a legacy of preserving farmlands, protecting waterways,
20 conserving open space and developing parks and renovating ball fields.
21 Through bipartisan leadership and community involvement, she furthered 22 previous initiatives and launched her own successes.

23 5. Cottage Lake park, formerly a private resort, was acquired by the 24 county in 1989. In partnership with King County agencies and the 25 community, Louise Miller helped shape the vision for the park to protect 26 its natural features and provide recreational amenities for the community.

27 6. In 1995, the outdoor pool at Cottage Lake park was renovated and 28 reopened to the public after a six-year closure. On May 28, 1999, the first 29 phase of the master plan was dedicated and officially transformed the park
30 into a regional destination of the King County park system.

31 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

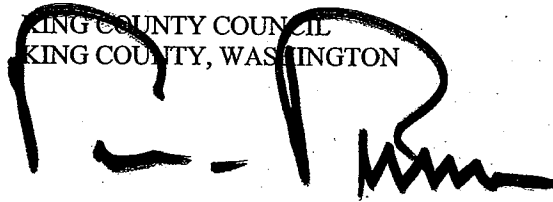

32 SECTION 1. In recognition of Louise Miller, who has served the King County 33 community for over thirty-five years, and in honor of her legacy to parks, recreation and

34 open space in King County, the administration/pool house at Cottage Lake park is now 35 named the Louise Miller Pavilion.
