1 AN ORDINANCE relating to permit timelines; and
2 amending Ordinance 13694, Section 56, as amended, and
3 K.C.C. 19A.12.020 and Ordinance 13694, Section 58, as
4 amended, and K.C.C. 19A.12.040.

5
6 SECTION 1. Ordinance 13694, Section 56, as amended, and K.C.C. 19A.12.020
7 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

8 A. Preliminary subdivision approval shall be effective for a period of sixty 9 months.

10 B. Preliminary subdivision approval shall be considered the basis upon which the 11 applicant may proceed toward development of the subdivision and preparation of the 12 final plat subject to all the conditions of the preliminary approval.

13 C. If the final plat is being developed in divisions, and final plats for all of the 14 divisions have not been recorded within the time limits provided in this section, 15 preliminary subdivision approval for all unrecorded divisions shall become void. The 16 preliminary subdivision for any unrecorded divisions must again be submitted to the

17 department with a new application, subject to the fees and regulations applicable at the 18 time of submittal.

19 D. An urban planned development permit, fully contained community permit, or 20 development agreement approved pursuant to K.C.C. chapter 21A.39 may extend the 21 preliminary approval period beyond sixty months for any preliminary subdivision
22 approved simultaneous or subsequent to the urban planned development permit or fully 23 contained community permit. Such extensions may be made contingent upon satisfying
24 conditions set forth in the urban planned development permit, fully contained community
25 permit or development agreement. In no case shall the extended preliminary approval 26 period exceed the expected buildout time period of the urban planned development or 27 fully contained community as provided in the urban planned development permit, fully 28 contained community permit or development agreement. This section shall apply to any 29 approved urban planned development permit, fully contained community permit or 30 development agreement in existence on January 1, 2000, or approved subsequent to 31 January 1, 2000.

32 E. For any plat with more than four hundred lots that is also part of the county's 33 four to one program, the preliminary subdivision approval shall be effective for eighty-34 four months. This subsection applies to any preliminary plat approved by either the 35 council or the hearing examiner, or both, on or after January 1, 1998, that relates to a four 36 to one program with proposed plats containing more than four hundred lots.

37 F. For any plat with more than fifty lots where fifty percent or more of those lots
38 will constitute affordable housing which is housing for those that have incomes of less
39 than eighty percent of median income for King County as periodically published by the

40 United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, or its successor agency, 41 and at least a portion of the funding for the project has been provided by federal, state or 42 county housing funds, the preliminary subdivision shall be effective for seventy-two 43 months. This subsection applies to any plat that has received preliminary approval on or 44 after January 1, 1998.

45 G.1. For any plat that has received preliminary approval on or after December 1, 46 2003, the preliminary subdivision approval shall be valid for a period of eighty-four
47 months, if the applicant:

48 a. makes a written request to the department to extend the period of validity;

49 b. is current on all invoices for work performed by the department on the
50 subdivision review; and

51 c. agrees in writing that the department may make revisions to the fee estimate
52 issued by the department under K.C.C. 27.02.065.

53 2. For any plat that received preliminary approval on or after December 1, 2003,
54 pursuant to K.C.C. 21A.55.060, the preliminary subdivision approval shall be valid for a
55 period of one hundred and eight months, if the applicant:

56 a. makes a written request to the department to extend the period of validity;

57 b. is current on all invoices for work performed by the department on the
58 subdivision review; and

59 c. agrees in writing that the department may make revisions to the fee estimate
60 issued by the department under K.C.C. 27.02.065.

61           3. This subsection shall retroactively apply to any plat that has received
62 preliminary approval on or after December 1, 2003. This subsection expires December
63 31, 2011.

64           SECTION 2. Ordinance 13694, Section 58, as amended, and K.C.C. 19A.12.040
65 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

66           Preliminary approval of a short subdivision shall be effective for a period of sixty 67 months, except:

68           A. The approval period shall be eighty-four months for any short plat that was 69 part of a development agreement or interlocal agreement entered into after January 1,
70 1996, that included at least four hundred acres of open space dedications and urban land
71 designations at a four-to-one ratio; and

72           B.1. For any short plat that has received preliminary approval on or after 73 December 1, 2003, the preliminary subdivision approval shall be valid for a period of 74 eighty-four months, if the applicant:

- 75           a. makes a written request to the department to extend the period of validity;
- 76           b. is current on all invoices for work performed by the department on the short
77 subdivision review; and
- 78           c. agrees in writing that the department may make revisions to the fee estimate
79 issued by the department under K.C.C. 27.02.065.

80           2. ~~((For any plat that received preliminary approval on or after December 1,~~
81 ~~2003, pursuant to K.C.C. 21A.55.060, the preliminary subdivision approval shall be valid~~
82 ~~for a period of one hundred and eight months, if the applicant:~~

- 83           a. ~~makes a written request to the department to extend the period of validity;~~

84            ~~b. is current on all invoices for work performed by the department on the~~
85            ~~subdivision review; and~~

86            ~~e. agrees in writing that the department may make revisions to the fee estimate~~
87            ~~issued by the department under K.C.C. 27.02.065.~~

88            3.) This subsection shall retroactively apply to any short plat that has received
89            preliminary approval on or after December 1, 2003. This subsection expires December
90            31, 2011.

91            SECTION 3. If any provision of this ordinance or its application to any person or

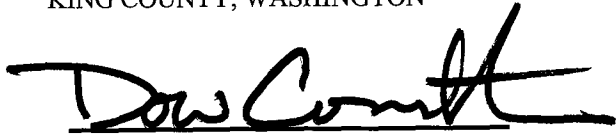

92

93 circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the ordinance or the application of the 94 provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
